

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alberto A.E. Bertelli, M.D., Ph.D.

Dipartimento di Scienze Biomediche per la Salute
Università degli Studi di Milano

Dr. Alberto Bertelli, graduated in Medicine at Pisa University and PhD in Pharmacology and Toxicology at Turin University. He works now as researcher at the Department of Biomedical Sciences for Health, University of Milan.

In his capacity of President of Sub-Commission “Vin, Nutrition et Santé” and Vice-President of Commission “Sécurité et Santé” at the O.I.V. (International Organization of Vine and Wine), Dr. Bertelli had the task of coordinating, analysing and preparing scientific dossiers to be submitted to Member Countries for resolution approval.

Responsible for dossier preparation on toxicological evaluation of contaminants in wine for Italian Ministry of Agriculture. Responsible for scientific opinion on alcohol and alcohol-related disorders for Italian Ministry of Welfare.

Responsible for the official report on WHO Alcohol policies submitted to the OIV Member States (Executive Committee).

He is currently Member of the Science Group – European Alcohol and Health Forum, Directorate General for Health and Consumers of the European Commission.

Dr. Bertelli is involved in wine and health clinical and experimental research and coordinates the cooperation among several Institutions in Europe and USA. He is the author of about 100 scientific articles on wine and health in international journals.