

CV

Prof. Angela Maria Gabriella Lupone

University of Milan, Department of International, legal, historical and political Studies (DILHPS)

Via Conservatorio 7, I 20122 Milan, Room 20

Tel. 0030 (0) 50321064

angela.lupone@unimi.it

Position: Faculty of social, political and economic sciences, Dean

Full Professor (Courses in International Trade Law , International Law , WTO. and international IP Law) in the University of Milan

Past Director of the Department of International, legal, historical and political Studies (DILHPS) (2007-2014), Chair of the Department's Joint Committee (2014-2016)

Born 1955 in Milan, Graduation Diploma (Abitur Certificate) at the German School of Milan (1959/1975): Law Studies (1976/1980) (University of Milan, Thesis on The Status of Aliens in International Law, Magna cum Laude ), Phd (Dottorato di ricerca) in International Law (University of Milan; Doctoral Thesis on International Insolvency Law), Research assistant (University of Milan, LUISS University in Rome, University of Bergamo), Scholarship of the Max Planck Institut für ausländisches und Internationales Privatrecht, Hamburg (1982, 1984, 1994), of the Consiglio nazionale delle ricerche (1981), of the CERADI Research Center/LUISS University(1988/1991), of the Bergamo University, University of Chieti (1991/1998). Associate Professor (University of Milan, 1998/2001), Full Professor (2001)

Scientific Committee CIDOIE (Centro interuniversitario sul Diritto delle organizzazioni internazionali economiche), Bocconi Transatlantic IP Summer Academy, CROSS Steering Committee (Osservatorio sulla criminalità organizzata) of the University of Milan, Italian Branch of the International Law Association.

Research areas: WTO LAW, Free trade agreements, Transatlantic trade and Investment Partnership, Intellectual property rights, food safety rights, Private international law, international business law, European Law, German-Italian Relations, Restitution of property, basic human needs, traditional knowledge, audiovisual and cultural goods in international and European law

Languages: German, English, French